

Eric Reed, MBA, CPA

Qualifications and Background

Eric Reed graduated from Brigham Young University – Idaho with a Bachelor of Science in accounting in December 2005. He then attended Idaho State University and graduated in May 2007 with a Master of Business Administration. Throughout his education he completed multiple accounting internships.

Eric joined Cooper Norman in June 2007 as a staff accountant in the Idaho Falls office. Eric serves on the Tax and Construction Committees of the firm. In early 2009, Eric received his certification as a licensed CPA.

Eric and his wife, Jill, are both from southeastern Idaho. They have two daughters and a son and enjoy hunting and camping together.