

Justin Pearson

Qualifications and Background

Justin Pearson graduated from Idaho State University with a Bachelor of Business Administration in accounting in December of 2008. During the 2006 and 2007 tax seasons he participated in and chaired the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program held on campus. During his schooling he also completed an internship with the Idaho National Laboratory within their internal audit department.

Justin joined Cooper Norman in December of 2008 in the Idaho Falls office. He is currently pursuing his license as a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and will begin testing in the spring of 2009. Currently, Justin sits on the Tax Committee of the Firm.

Justin enjoys many outdoor activities and spending time with his family. He and his wife, Jenn, are both from the Pocatello area and currently reside in Idaho Falls with their two children.
