

Michael Goettsche, MBA

Qualifications and Background

Michael graduated university honors from Carnegie Mellon University in Pittsburgh, PA, with a Bachelor of Science in Industrial Management, Economics, and European Studies in 1996. After graduating from Carnegie Mellon, Michael worked as a consultant implementing business software solutions for clients in the High Tech and Consumer Packaged Goods Industry.

Michael attended Idaho State University and graduated with a Master of Business Administration in May 2009.

While attending Idaho State University, Michael was involved in Beta Alpha Psi, serving as chapter president from June 2007 to June 2008.

Michael has spent the past several years coaching competitive soccer.